"Military Personnel Authorization in Event of General Emergency" memo, Director of Personnel to DTR, 30 September 1958.

1. I have reviewed each MOS listed in subject memorandum. (For convenience MOS has been used here to denote military speciality skills or occupations for all four services.) See attached list, by service, for MOS descriptions which have been summarized where the individual was considered to be of a type or category that would be assigned to the Operations School.
 2. No effort has been made to G-2 the situation and come up with MOS's that might be more descriptive of our needs. This can be done on a more extended basis, or in conjunction with the Mobilization Staff, the next time this paper is reviewed and reissued.
 3. From the review just made, the MOS categories indicate individuals that would fit easily and readily into training conducted by the Operations School. There is one exception, that of 42
